[Correspondence of the Whig & Courier]

WASHINGTON, June 8, 1838

THE DECLARATION OF THE ADMINISTRATION THAT THERE IS TO BE NO RELIEF AT ANY EVENT A SKIRMISH IN THE SENATE THE PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEBATE IN THE HOUSE THE CHEROKEE QUESTION.

Today, in the Senate, Mr Webster, whose indefatigable exertions you must have observed throughout the session, for the relief of the country from those grinding measures of the administration, had a reply from the Committee of Finance, in relation to the intentions of the Secretary of the Treasury, in restricting receipts of money, in payment of public dues, in such a manner as to make the late rescission of the Specie Circular a mere dead letter, so far as any practical good purpose is concerned Wright introduced a report, in which these intentions of the administration were specifically declared to be unalterably fixed and, in a subsequent part of the matter, both Benton and Niles took that ground most emphatically, and gave the Senate and the country to understand, that, the administration would not relax in their designs, and would not hesitate in their policy, whatever might come of it. Between Benton and Webster there was a warm passage at arms and the Ball Roller, if he had not long ago been impervious to every thing like a well worded and well aimed rebuke, would have blushed at the sight of the picture taken by that master hand It is rarely the case that Webster puts on the armor of the arena, but when he does, the king of the gladiators is no match for him Upon this occasion he left Benton and the administration bleeding and speechless in the dust.

So we are to have no relief from this administration! They are driven to the Sub-Treasury as the dernier resort. "Returning is as bad as going on," and "tied to a stake" they must stand the hazard of the desperate conflict. That conflict will be easy. This day's debate has rendered doubly sure, what before was well assured.

The administration and the people are now directly at issue. The result will show which of the two is the stronger I, for one, have no fears as to that result!

In the House, the bill to authorise the taking down the present Treasury building, as far as completed, and to build on a more economical scale, was debated, and laid on the table I think this vote will be reconsidered.

In the Senate, the Cherokee and Seminole appropriation bill was taken up and discussed It will pass, in nearly the same form as in the House.

The Cherokees are quietly leaving their homes for the west, under the skilful policy of General Scott. God be thanked, no blood will be the cost of this removal!

Pray believe nothing you may hear of rumored removals and changes in the Cabinet here All are false at present.

Congress will rise on the 9th of July, I think It cannot before, nor do I believe it will sit longer. STENO

BANGOR — ITS PROSPECTS.

The present appearance of Bangor, contrasted with the noisy activity which prevailed in its streets three years ago, has perhaps, discouraged some who have only glanced superficially at the business affairs of our city, and therefore has led them to indulge in melancholly-forebodings. Strangers particularly, may imagine that the comparatively dull scene now presented to their eyes, will long continue, and that Bangor has received a blow from which she will not soon recover. But our own business men ought not to let such expressions of despondency affect their spirits, or retard their efforts to extricate themselves from embarrassments. Heavy as their burdens may be, let them still persevere, for relief will come at last In every community, there is always a set of croakers, who take pleasure in groaning over the hardness of the times, and are always nourishing gloomy presages Dr. Franklin states in his memoirs that when he first visited Philadelphia, before the Revolution, and had made arrangements for starting his newspaper, he happened to fall in company with one of these croakers When he learned what undertaking the Doctor had embarked in, he made the most discouraging remarks, and painted the prospects of Philadelphia in the gloomiest colors! According to his story the city was fast going down. [illegible] not as they used to be Money [illegible] ever. In short, says Franklin, his assertion that the city was not as it used to be [illegible] young, and the fact he stated to me, that two or three printers had tried to carry on a paper in the city but had failed, wrought so powerfully on my mind, that if I had not [illegible] my preparations and made engagements which I could not honorably have broken, I should have [illegible] little interest I [illegible] from the city, [illegible] [illegible] croakers are [illegible] than drones in the hive, for they [illegible] in our city than in many others, [illegible]

but whenever their cry is heard, let it not be heeded [illegible]

[illegible] for speculation, which seized so fully on all classes in 1835, had its day [illegible], and we are now reaping some of its fruits Many of our citizens find themselves involved, and perceive that their credit was temporarily a little over strained. But on the whole, there is more due to Bangor than from her If all indebted to her, would pay up, her business men could discharge their liabilities, and have a balance of capital on hand, to start anew with There are cases we know, where people must rub out all old scores, and begin again, but when the sponge shall have done its work, there will remain a handsome list of good accounts, from which dollar for dollar, will ultimately be realized

The native resources of Bangor, and the extensive region of which it will form the mart, still remain unimpaired The principal part of the coast lumber trade for New England will be carried on here Much as her timber lands have been decried, they constitute a substantial source of wealth, which ridicule cannot impair, nor timorous doubts diminish. In the distant interior portions of our country which have been settled, there is a rich agricultural region, which will be the source of a never failing income The newly discovered Slate quarries, are also another item which should not be omitted in a calculation of our resources If the liberal State policy respecting the public lands, which has been adopted this year, under the auspices of a WHIG STATE administration continues, the Aroostook region will fill with settlers, and the products of that fertile valley will have their outlet through Bangor, and from her too, it will derive the greatest portion of its surplus.

In one point of view Bangor differs from every other city of New England, and this difference is in the character of her citizens. There is a very small proportion of old men in her population, a fact which is invariably noticed by strangers Her citizens are chiefly young and active men, who are imbued with an uncommon spirit of enterprize In her growth and character, she resembles the young cities which spring up so rapidly in the West Now this vigor and enterprise of her citizens is equivalent to actual capital, that will enable her to sustain reverses, and will press her forward in times of prosperity, in a manner unsurpassed by any city of the North. The very pressure and reaction which in part, resulted from too much speculation, will be a caution to her young men, and teach them for the future to conduct their business on a safer and more prudent scale. Although some of them may have failed once in business, they will not be kept "under the hatches" all their lives. When men advanced beyond the age of fifty years fail, they seldom recover, but to the young a failure in business gives an instructive lesson, and they may draw good even from their adversity It may depress, but it will not entirely discourage them The seeds of prosperity are still in the soil; they have been bruised and crushed, but not destroyed With a kind and fostering hand extended towards them, they will recover and springing up, bear a noble harvest The financial embarrassments of the country which have been produced by the wretched mismanagement of Van Buren and his party, have fallen heavily upon Bangor and contributed to sinking her deeper under water, but when that burden shall be removed, she will be buoyant as before. She has happily been termed the WHIG HEART OF MAINE, as she has for many years thrown a heavy majority for the Whigs. When the obstructions are removed, which the general government by its blundering attempts to "better" the currency has thrown into the channels of business and enterprise, then Bangor will also become the BUSINESS centre and heart of our young and growing State.

Gridley S Parkman, charged with the murder of his wife, Phebe Parkman, at St Albans, on the 13th of October last, had his trial at the June term of the S. J. Court, in Somerset The indictment contained two counts The first charged the prisoner with causing the death of his wife by poisoning with arsenic the second charged him with causing her death by poisoning her with opium The prisoner plead ed not guilty. On Saturday last Mr. Tenney argued in behalf of the prisoner, and was followed by the Attorney General for Government Judge Shepley charged the Jury, they retired at about 5 o'clock, P M and at 8 they returned into court with a verdict of NOT GUILTY.

The steamer Gazelle which plied between St. Johns and Eastport, is said to be a total loss She was owned by a Mr. Whitney, and was valued at $90,000. The persons engaged to raise her, returned without being able to discover where she was.

"The Voice of the People" is having a tremendous run, and what is more especially in its favor, it is having a great run from the loco foco papers, who hear with terror, its tones of thunder. Suppose they buy the edition.

DROWNED in this city, on Monday last, Andrew Jackson, son of Mr Samuel Robey, Esq. aged 10 years. Parents cannot use too much care in keeping their children from the river.

Two children, brothers, one seven and the other 9 years of age, were drowned a few days since in the vicinity of Woodstock, N B. They attempted to cross a deep bordeaux, partly filled with logs, and were found at the bottom the next [illegible]

[illegible] His conviction is thought certain. [illegible]

"The people of this State had seven agents of their own choice at Washington to take care of their interests. The State considered as an independent [illegible] two agents [illegible] selected by the Legislature [illegible] with the Constitution and laws. But the dynasty was not represented, and they have accordingly supplied the "vacancy" by appointing a gentleman of undoubted federalism to attend to their interests at Washington. The amount of the "out fit and salary" of this newly created officer is not stated"

The above is from the Augusta Age, which is owned by Ruel Williams and managed by his tools. It seems to be in a "twitter" at the extravagance of Gov. Kent in sending Charles S Daveis to Washington as a special messenger to urge upon Congress the necessity of passing a law peremptorily requiring Van Buren to cause a survey of the North Eastern Boundary. Mr Daveis is intimately acquainted with this subject and in every way qualified to explain and enforce upon members of Congress, the views of the present Governor, the wishes of the people of Maine, and the necessity of early and immediate action by the General Government The Legislature will probably pay Mr Daveis what his services have been worth to the State It will not in any event be more than one mill to each citizen, and we can tell the editor of the Age, that the yeomanry of Maine would cheerfully pay even their last dollar to preserve the honor of the State and to secure to her, jurisdiction over her rightful territory But the expense is not the true reason of the carping opposition of the Age Ruel Williams is at his old tricks again He was a black cockade federalist during the last war, and if report speaks true, assisted in burning in the streets of Augusta, an effigy of Madison He was then throwing every obstacle in the way of the general government, to prevent their driving the British out of the country. He is now in connection with the leaders of that party doing all in his power to thwart the efforts of the present State administration in their measures to drive the British out of Maine. Will the Age explain the difference between the Hartford Convention federalism of 1812 and the Thalweg federalism of 1838 The people think that there is about as much difference as there is between tweedle dum, and tweedle dee

The proprietorship of the North American Quarterly Magazine has passed into the hands of N C Brooks Esq long known to our community as a writer and worthy citizen While we see every probability of the Magazine's being a highly useful depository of literature under the management of Mr. B. we sincerely hope that, in turn it may prove to him a source of honor and profit. The plan of the work is as would seem, to be enlarged, and much pains are to be bestowed on its mechanical execution. [Baltimore American.

[And so do we hope that "it may prove to him a source of honor and profit." The "honor" we'll vouch for, but unless Baltimoreans manifest a greater inclination to patronize the periodicals of their city, he'll find the "profits" rather slim]

The proprietors of the various newspaper establishments throughout the country have suffered more than any other of our citizens by these times, and yet they have said less about their losses Their collections have been "few and far between, like plums in a school boy's pudding [N Y. paper.]

GALE A severe gale was experienced at Charleston on the 5th inst Considerable damage was done to the shipping in port, but no lives were lost and the town itself was uninjured.

BEASTLY DEATH A brute, bearing the shape of a man, a few weeks ago, drank upon a wager at Sangerties, N. Y, nearly a quart of brandy, and almost immediately fell dead upon the floor.

HORRID ACCIDENT On Thursday last, as the wife of Mr. James Hall, of New Rochelle, N. Y was driving a single horse, with two of her children in the wagon, it ran away, jumped over a fence, broke both of Mrs. Hall's legs, broke one leg and one arm of one of the children, and fractured the skull of the other. The horse broke two of his own legs, and stove the wagon into pieces.

THE PREVIOUS QUESTION In the course of debate on the pre-emption bill in the House of Representatives on Thursday last, there was some sparring between Messrs. Petrikin and Cushman. The correspondent of the New York Courier relates the following anecdote, as connected with this debate

"Petrikin wears a long queue After the brush between the parties was over, Cushman inquired does not the previous question cut off every thing? Being answered in the affirmative, he very drily remarked "well, the first opportunity I have, I'll move the previous question on Petrikin's queue and cut that off

A Loco-foco State Convention is to be held in this town on the 20th inst. to nominate John Fairfield for Governor. Parson Brown is of opinion that the "Martyrdom of Cilley" will make Fairfield available, and the nomination will be made accordingly, though some of the knowing ones here are of opinion that the thing will not TAKE [Kennebec Journal.]

We have received the first number of the "Appeal to the Democracy" or as it is more properly called by the wags, the "Repeal of the Democracy," issued from the Age office. It much resembles a piratical schooner. It is long and black and has a suspicious appearance. We fear from the character of the captain and crew, as well as the instruments of war on board, (viz Wright's report, attacks on the currency and extracts from the duel report) that it intends to bear down on the noble ship Constitution, if so their fate will be worse than that of the steamboat [illegible] however the Captain still persists in [illegible] we advise him to make his peace with father Neptune and engage lodgings in the "[illegible] harves" for himself and crew. [Jo.]

Through the politeness of a passenger in the Bangor, we received last evening the Boston [illegible] Journal of the [illegible] [illegible] no news of importance. The packet ship President had arrived at New York, bringing London dates to May 9th two days later There appears to be no political news of interest. [illegible] was on the advance, and the most ephemeral stocks found purchasers, owing to the difficulty of employing money at its full profit

The packet ship Cambridge had arrived below New York on Monday Day of sailing 16th ult.

[From Blackwood's Magazine]

FOLLY

There is folly in all the world,
Or go we east or west,
A folly that vexes the old,
And keeps the young from rest.

The miser has folly enough,
For his soul is in sordid bags;
And the spendthrift's folly, alas!
Brings him to sin and rags

There is folly in [illegible] men's [illegible]
For spite of their plotting and wit,
There's a wiser hand above
That leads them with bridle and bit.

There's folly in power and pride,
That makes full many to fall,
There's folly in maiden's love,
But that is sweetest of all.

But of all the follies, the worst
For it stings with constant smart,
The scorpion of the mind
Is that of a thankless heart.

For the thankless heart is cursed,
And with blessings encompass'd grieves
For it cannot rejoice with the hand
That gives nor yet receives

To be thankful, makes better the good
And if heaven should send us ill,
There is kindness in him that gives
So let us be thankful still

O let us be thankful in youth,
And let us be thankful in age
And let us be thankful through life
For there's pleasure in every stage.

Youth hath its own sweet joys.
And he must be blind as a bat,
Who cannot see love's sweet smile,
And will not be thankful for that.

There are friends the dearest to cheer,
Ere half our sand is run
And affection makes wintry days
As bright as the summer's sun.

And when from the dearest on earth
We part, let us hope 'tis given
And boon to be thank'd for still
To meet them again in heaven.

Woman as she should and as she should not be

We commend the following fine remarks of the Philadelphia National Gazette to the consideration of the softer sex of all ages and all classes in all parts of the country. The disposition manifested within a few years past by the American ladies or those who claim to be considered such, is deeply disgusting If womanhood in the United States is really desirous of unsexing itself, we can think of a dozen modes in which it can render its manhood more useful and efficient that in mounting the pulpit to harrangue a congregation of negro dandies on amalgamation. Let the ladies organise themselves into military regiments, and make a campaign or two against the seminoles

"Never do female graces and talents appear so misplaced, so at variance with sound opinion and sure experience, as when displayed on the broad arena of public disputation of political gladiatorship. Their state, for the most part, has been through all ages, either one of oppression or has not commanded for them widely and substantially the generous immunity and tender regard due their sex At last they have settled down to a position appropriate to their nature and requirements. They are in a sphere which cannot be enlarged or altered without taking away full half the charm of their character The exploded errors of one age are reproduced as the new truths of another The didactics of Mary Wolstonecraft mere echoes of forgotten Amazons of other days have their prototypes in this country. Our young ladies are flattered for the first time with homilies, on paper and from the platform, on the equality of male and female intellects and the rights of woman, and chivalry in petticoats rides through the land. Least of all have American females cause to complain of the position custom has assigned them. The kindness and attention they receive the gallantry universally shown them not the less worthy for being often uncouth should teach them one and all to appreciate their social position without looking for immoderate or strange privileges, or applauding and running after public Reformers from their own sex Instead of attending useless discussions and listening to itinerant lecturers, let them read at home. Above all let them remember that their roses do not need the foil of a dark ground."

A Sister He who has never known a sister's kind ministrations, nor felt his heart warming beneath her endearing smile and love beaming eye, has been unfortunate indeed. It is not to be wondered if the fountains of pure feeling flow in his bosom but sluggishly, or if the gentler emotions of his nature be lost in the sterner attributes of manhood

"That man has grown upon kind affectionate sisters," I once heard a lady of much observation and experience remark.

"And why do you think so?"

"Because of the rich development of all the tender feelings of the heart."

A sister's influence is felt, even in manhood's riper years, and the heart of him who has grown cold in its chilly contact with the world, will warm and thrill with pure enjoyment, as some incident awakens within him the soft tones and glad melodies of his sister's voice. and he will turn from purposes which a warped and false philosophy had reasoned in expediency, and even weep for the gentle influence which moved him in his earlier years.

Bangor, May 15, 1837.

THE most safe, effectual and economical remedy for diseases of the Human Constitution, that has ever been discovered.
These Pills are composed entirely of materials extracted from Medical Plants, and are warranted not to contain one particle of mercury, or any mineral substance. Dr Kingley, the inventor of this valuable medicine, from his knowledge of the human system derived from a long and extensive practice, has arrived to the conclusion, that the great and primary cause of most diseases is a derangement in the functions of the liver; or in other words an increased or diminished secretion of the Bile.
So well is this understood, that it is common for persons to say when they feel unwell that they are bilious, meaning that they have too much bile in the stomach. On the other hand, when the flow of bile is diminished, the process of digestion is imperfectly performed, the patient becomes weak and emaciated, because nourishment contained in the food taken into the stomach is not properly extracted, and the food is ejected in a crude state. Dr. Kingley is confident that the famous Hygona Theory, so called, that "impurity of the blood is the cause of all diseases," is a great absurdity. Every one who reflects upon the subject a moment, will perceive that impurity of the blood is a secondary, not a primary complaint the effect, and not the cause of the disease. When the functions of the liver are deranged, and the flow of bile increased, it is often taken up by the absorbent vessels and carried into the circulation, and becomes mingled with the blood as in Jaundice, when the patient shows it in his countenance. Now this impurity of the blood is caused by an increased flow of the bile, and to remedy it you must correct the secretion of the liver and restore it to a healthy state.
Dr Kingley has spent much time in experimenting with different vegetable medicines, for diseases of the liver, and now offers his Universal Family Pills as the best, most convenient and cheapest medicine that can be prepared for general use; and in offering them to the public, he is actuated more by benevolent than pecuniary motives, as the price of the medicine will shew.
Dr. Kingley flatters himself that his long experimenting with vegetable medicines has enabled him to discover the true and only substitute answering all the purpose of mercurials, without any of their attendant evils. One great quality of his family Pills is, that they have the alterative principle combined with their cathartic or operative quality, so that they not only cleanse the stomach and bowels by purging, but they regulate the liver, change the morbid secretions, strengthen the digestive organs, purify the blood, invigorate the circulation, and give tone and energy to the nervous system.
They are mild and pleasant in their operation, and almost immediate conviction of their utility from the first dose. They can be taken with safety by persons of any age, and the feeble, the infirm, the nervous, the delicate, are strengthened by their operation, because they clear the system of bad humors, quiet nervous irritabilities and restlessness, from whatever source, and invariably produce sound sleep.
The Family Pills are an invariable remedy for jaundice, sick and nervous headache, dyspepsia, costiveness, sickness of the stomach, heartburn, all bilious complaints, fevers of all kinds, and if taken at the commencement will invariably check their progress, and save the patient from a protracted and dangerous sickness. They are invaluable in nervous and hypochondriacal affections, loss of appetite, and all complaints to which females alone are subject. They operate as a mild and speedy purge, and are a safe and certain remedy for worms in children.
I might publish a small volume of certificates but consider it unnecessary, as the medicine will recommend itself to all who will make trial of it.
JOHN KINGLEY.
These Pills are put up in neat boxes of two sizes; the small size contains 25 Pills, and the retail price is 25 cents, the large size contains 60 Pills, the price is 50 cents.
☞ PALMER & BLAKE have been appointed agents for the above pills for the New England States. Druggists and others can be supplied wholesale and retail, upon application to them at No 44 Hanover street, Boston, or to J. E. LADD, Augusta, agent for the State of Maine. Any person wishing to become agent for any Town, must address them, post paid.
For sale by WILLIAM MANN, No 12 Main street, and WHITTIER & GUILD, Exchange street Bangor, H Nourse Belfast, Alden & Saunders Waterville, A T Perkins Gardiner, T B Merrick Hallowell, Snow & Bacon Skowhegan, S. WAR! WAR!! WAR!!!
Between the Physicians and the Matchless Sanative

1 WHY are some of the American Physicians making such strong efforts to PUT DOWN the Matchless Sanative? Let the public answer.
2 Why did the German Physicians at first OPPOSE Dr. Goelicke, and afterwards acknowledge him to be a GREAT BENEFACTOR to mankind? Let the public answer.
3. What medicine HAS cured, IS curing and WILL cure obstinate diseases which physicians CANNOT cure? Let Facts answer.
4. What kind of apple trees are most STONED and CLUBBED? Let Farmers answer.
5. Why are physicians constantly PELTING the Sanative and saying nothing against OTHER medicines? Let their Day Book answer.
6. How did Dr Adams attempt to convince Mr Webster who had bought a vial of the Sanative for the use of his family, that it was a DANGEROUS medicine? Let one of the daily papers answer. "The recent experiment which Dr Adams tried with the Matchless Sanative, in giving a large dose of it to a dog, without killing him, clearly proves that the Sanative was made to CURE and not to KILL."
7. Why do some physicians SECRETLY buy the Sanative and MIX it with their own medicines, which they use in their daily practice. Answer: that they may have the CREDIT of the CURES.
8 Why is a sick young man belonging to one of the first families in Boston, now using the Sanative, without letting the attending physician KNOW it? The recovery of his HEALTH will shortly answer.
9. Why are physicians trying to persuade agents to give up SELLING the Sanative? Answer: they know, if it should be for sale in every town in America, they would shortly be obliged to resort to SOME OTHER BUSINESS or else STARVE.
10 Why will the Matchless Sanative soon be the ONLY medicine used throughout the world? Let PHYSICIANS answer.
The above precious medicine (the original discovery of Dr LOUIS O GOELICKE, of Germany) is for sale wholesale and retail, in Boston, by P. R. ROWLAND, General American Agent for the discoverer.
Also for sale by FRANCIS FRANK, Hampden, and [illegible] H. BURR, Brewer; PUFUS GILMORE, Newburgh, and in most of the towns in America.
☞ In places where there are no Agents, the [illegible] who shall write to the General Agent at Boston, will [illegible] be appointed an Agent.
